New - Small Dogs Welcome

Upgrades and New Policies for 2018

by Donna on February 2, 2018

Keith and I are animal lovers, but we've really wrangled with the pet policy ever since we witnessed a 10 second kill of one of our free-ranging chickens by a guest's otherwise perfectly behaved dog.

But after much consideration, we've decided to cautiously allow small furry traveling companions. We are welcoming up to two well mannered dogs with their owners (sorry no cats at this time) with a weight limit of 30 pounds or less. There will also be an additional $20 pet cleaning fee.

Another upgrade besides the ones I mentioned in last month's newsletter: The sleeping lodge has been split into two sections and we're dividing those spaces with a 5' privacy partition. We're still providing ear plugs for relationships' sake, but the separated sleeping is much more cozy without compromising natural light and keeping heating and cooling efficient.

THIS MONTH'S OTHER NEWS

Creekside Cottage studio aka the garden shed is coming along slowly but surely. Because our spare time is consumed with upgrades to The Acorn I will not be offering any new jewelry at the online shop this month. However - I will be vending at another pop-up event at the Barn at Post Oak in Simpsonville. See details below. I am hoping to bring a couple of pieces of my hand painted furniture as well as pearls. There will be eight vendors on site besides my sister's barn filled with new goodies. Thanks to so many friends who supported this event in January.

“Live for the moments you can't put into words.”

Come stay Yonderways, flannel shirt optional, where the pace is relaxed, the distinct mountain air fills your lungs and soul, the frogs and fireflies perform nightly in warm weather, and where worries subside and priorities are renewed on your private deck by a mountain stream.

Google places reviews

May we ask a favor? If you've stayed with us please leave us a google review (even if you left a facebook review). A positive review on google is a really big deal. Go now while you're thinking about it - thanks!
